Declarations to speak with grace and power

My words are birthed in love as words without love sound like meaningless gong and clanging cymbal. (1 Corinthians 13:1)

I will be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger (James 1:19)

My words are timely, like apples of gold in settings of silver. (Proverbs 25:11)

I have the grace to speak like Stephen, so none can resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which I speak. (Acts 6:10)

The Lord has given me the tongue of the learned to speak a word in season to the weary. I have the grace to speak encouragement, hope, joy and peace. (Ephesians 4:29, Isaiah 50:4, Proverbs 18:21, 15:4, 2:25)

I please the Lord with the words I speak and the meditation of my heart. (Psalm 19:14)

My words shall be pleasant as honey, sweet to the mind and healing to the body. (Proverbs 16:24)

I am not anxious on what I should speak as the Holy Spirit gives me the right words to speak. (Mark 13:11)

My words will be gentle, deflecting anger, never harsh causing tempers to flare up. (Proverbs 15:1)

I shall speak words that are brilliant, filled with wisdom and persuasive. (Proverbs 16:23, James 1:5)

I speak up for the dumb, the defenceless, the poor and the needy. (Proverbs 31:8,9)

I treasure God's words more than my daily food. I do not depart from His commandment. (Job 23:12)

As a person with faith and without doubt, I know I can say to the mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and it will be done.' (Mathew 21:21)
