

Scripture declarations to speak with Grace

(Click the above link to read the declarations online. Read these declarations in the morning and at night daily for at least six weeks or more. May the Lord Jesus Christ bless you richly.)

Scripture declarations to speak with Grace

The words I speak are formed in love, as words without love are like a meaningless gong and clanging cymbal. (based on 1 Corinthians 13:1)

I am quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger. (based on James 1:19)

My words are appropriate and timely, like apples of gold in settings of silver. (based on Proverbs 25:11)

The Lord God has given me the tongue of the learned, that I speak a word in season to him who is weary. The Lord awakens me morning by morning, He awakens my ear to hear as the learned. (based on Isaiah 50:4)

My words impart grace and edification to those who hear me. (based on Ephesians 4:29)

I speak hope, joy, and peace to the people around me. (based on Ephesians 4:29)

I have a wholesome tongue, which is a tree of life. (based on Proverbs 15:4)

I please the Lord with the words I speak and the meditation of my heart.

(based on Psalm 19:14)

I am not anxious about what I should speak, as the Holy Spirit gives me the right words to speak. (based on Mark 13:11)

Even in tough situations, I am able to give a soft answer and avoid harsh words that stir anger. (based on Proverbs 15:1)

With faith and without any doubt, I speak to mountain-sized hindrances to good conversations, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea in Jesus name,' and it will be done." (based on Mathew 21:21)

As mentioned in Mathew 17:20, with faith the size of a mustard seed, I can move mountains and have grace-filled, powerful, and successful conversations. (based on Mathew 17:20)

As mentioned in Mathew 21:22, I will receive whatever I ask, believing in prayer. (based on Mathew 21:22)

I ask and receive Wisdom from God for good conversations liberally. (based on James 1:5)

I have the grace to speak with authority like Jesus. (based on Mathew 7:29)

Unclean spirits obey when I speak in Jesus name, and God is glorified. (based on Mark 1:27)

The pleasant words I speak are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the bones. (based on Proverbs 16:24)

I have the grace to speak like Stephen, so the people around me are not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which I speak. (based on Acts 6:10)

Why should you have a lifestyle of making declaration-prayer? (Read by clicking on the link.)

Explore 600+ powerful declarations for various situations and circumstances in your life.